LOWER WATERFORD.

Stoddard Golden Wedding.

A delightful meeting of old friends and neighbors occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah W. Stoddard in Waterford, March 15, 1909, when by invitation of Mr. and Mrs. George Stoddard, their son, relatives and neighbors assembled to remind them of their 50th marriage anniversary. Mr. Stoddard is a Waterford product to the limit. Born on the farm now owned by N. G. Reed, April 30, 1830, the oldest son, with three brothers and six sisters, to Willard and Hannah (Benton) Stoddard, with no other home than Waterford of any length of time. His birthplace was the home of his grandfather, Jesse Stoddard, who came to the town as one of its early settlers, from Chesterfield, N. H., with brothers, Alpheus and David, who were pioneer settlers in Burke and Newark. Mr. Stoddard has been honored by holding nearly all the offices in the gift of his native town, representing the town in the Legislature of 1900. March 15, 1859, he married Miss Philoma A. Willey in Shipton, Que., to which union have been born four sons—with twelve grandchildren—three of whom are living, and were present on this occasion, with one exception, Henry, now a resident of Cambridgeport, Mass. Mr. Stoddard was born in Shipton, Que., Sept. 28, 1839, the daughter of Jared and Mary (Burbank) Willey—with four brothers and four sisters—a worthy helpmate in the estimate of her husband and acquaintances, in spite of present day tendencies, through all their 50 years of married life. Although this was no golden wedding for a golden shower, a substantial reminder was left with them, of a golden and green one. Those from out of town were Mrs. Esther Humphrey, a sister, Mrs. Frank Fitch, a niece, and her daughter, Mrs. Williams from Littleton, N. H.; Mrs. Alex Blair, a sister from Barre; George A. Stoddard and wife, a brother from Peacham; Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Williamson of Barton, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross of St. Johnsbury. Many more wedding anniversaries for Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard was the wish of all present.
